

Instruction

AR 6179(a)CHILD CARE AND DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS

District child care and development programs shall include: '(Education Code 8240)

1. Age and developmentally appropriate activities for children.
2. Supervision.
3. Parenting education and parent/guardian involvement.
4. Social services that include, but are not limited to, identification of child and family needs and referral to appropriate agencies.
5. Health services.
6. Nutrition.
7. Training and career ladder opportunities.

The site teacher shall maintain a developmental profile for each child served by the program.

Each child's profile shall appropriately identify the child's social, physical and cognitive growth. The profile shall be maintained from the time the child enters the program until he/she leaves. (Education Code 8203.5)

No child shall be denied access to a child care and development program on the basis of disability unless at least five percent of those receiving subsidized child care and development services are children with exceptional needs. (Education Code 8250.5)

The percentage of children with exceptional needs in each extended day care program shall at least equal the percentage of children in grades K-8 inclusive residing in the district and receiving special education services, unless the demand for this level of service does not exist. (Education Code 8468.5)

Attendance

Sign in/sign out sheets shall be used daily for all children. Attendance records shall include documentation verifying the specific reason for all excused absences.

Absences shall be excused for the following reasons:

1. Illness or quarantine of the child or of the parent/ guardian.
2. Family emergency.
3. Time spent with a parent/guardian or other relative as required by a court of law or which is clearly in the best interest of the child. (Education Code 8208(d))

A family emergency shall be considered to exist when unforeseen circumstances cause the need for immediate action, such as may occur in the event of a natural disaster or when a member of the child's immediate family dies, has an accident, or is required to appear in court.

AR 6179(b)

An absence shall be considered to be in the best interest of the child when the time is spent with the child's parent/guardian or other relative for reasons deemed justifiable by the program coordinator.
